Dear Mr. Netter

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of R.M.N. Securities, Inc. as at December 31, 2007 and the related statements of revenue, expenses, changes in retained earnings, changes in stockholders' equity, computation of net capital, and statement of cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. No material differences exist between the audited and non-audited computation of net capital. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the management of R.M.N. Securities, Inc.

During the course of the audit for the period ending December 31, 2007 an examination of the internal controls revealed other employees present in the company. However, I found that no one other than you has any access to any mail, checks, bank statements or other financial data that would cause an adverse opinion on the audited financial statements. I find that no material inadequacies exist.

In my opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial position of R.M.N. Securities, Inc. as at December 31, 2007 and the results of operations for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Sincerely,

Solomon L. Melamed
